

Installing the Supawood Revit Materials Library

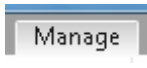

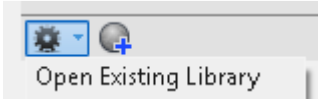

Below are some instructions for copying the Revit materials library to a Revit users PC.

Installing the Supawood Revit Materials Library

Download and extract the Supawood Revit Materials and Textures to the following locations.

1. Copy the Supawood Material Library (Supawood Acoustic Panels.adsklib) to (C:\Program Files (x86)\Common Files\Autodesk Shared\Materials\<Revit Version>\)
2. Copy the Supawood Textures to (C:\Program Files (x86)\Common Files\Autodesk Shared\Materials\Textures\Supawood\)

Loading the Supawood Materials Library in Revit

1. Click on the 'manage' tab,  click on 'materials'
2. Click on the 'open material library' icon , select 'open existing library'
3. Browse to the directory where the Supawood Revit Materials are installed (C:\Program Files (x86)\Common Files\Autodesk Shared\Materials\<Revit Version>\Supawood Acoustic Panels.adsklib) and click 'open', click 'ok'